CONSTITUTION

The Orphan Asylum Society,

OF THE

CITY OF BROOKLYN.

ARTICLE I.

This Society shall be known by the name of the Orphan Asylum Society of the City of Brooklyn, and its object, as expressed in the Act incorporating the Society, is to protect, relieve, and instruct Orphans and Destitute Children in the City of Brooklyn.

ARTICLE II.

Any person contributing annually to the funds of the Society, and whose name shall be entered or registered as such contributor by the Recording Secretary, shall, for the time being, and until such contribution is discontinued, or on request of payment declined, be a member of this Society, and entitled to all the rights and privileges of an original member. A contribution of twenty-five dollars shall constitute the contributor a member for life. Any person contributing at one time to the funds of the Asylum one hundred dollars, or who shall have been an officer of the Society for ten or more years, shall be constituted an honorary member of the Society.

ARTICLE III.

The business of the Society shall be conducted by a Board of Managers, consisting of a First and Second Directress, a Corresponding and Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and forty or more Managers, who shall be chosen annually by the Society, and who shall have the power of filling all vacancies which may occur in the Board during the year for which they are chosen; also of appointing twelve gentlemen to act as a Board of Advisors, and to assist in raising funds.

ARTICLE IV.

The Annual Meeting shall be held on the THIRD WEDNESDAY OF MAY in each year, at such hour and place, and be conducted in such manner as the Board of Managers shall from time to time designate and prescribe; and at such meeting, or in case the same shall, from any cause, not have been held on that day, then at such other time and place as the Board may for that purpose appoint, (and which, in such case, shall be appointed for an early day as shall be conveniently practicable,) the Officers and Managers for the ensuing year shall be chosen, and they shall in all cases, continue in office until others are chosen in their stead.

ARTICLE V.

The First Directress shall preside at all meetings, both of the Society and of the Board of Managers, preserve order, state questions for decision, and declare the result; and when the meeting is equally divided on any question, she shall have the casting vote.

ARTICLE VI.

The duties of the First Directress shall, in case of her absence, devolve on and be performed by the Second Directress. In case of the absence of both, a Manager, chosen by the meeting, shall preside.

ARTICLE VII.

The Recording Secretary shall give due notice of all the meetings of the Society, and of the Board of Managers; attend the meetings of the same, and record their proceedings.

ARTICLE VIII.

At the opening of every meeting, the minutes of the last meeting shall be read by the Secretary, and submitted to the Board for approval.

ARTICLE IX.

It shall be the duty of the Corresponding Secretary to conduct the correspondence of the Society, and prepare the Annual Report.

ARTICLE X.

The Treasurer shall take charge of all moneys collected or received for the Society; make all disbursements ordered by the Board of Managers; attend their meetings; report at the monthly meetings the amount of receipts and payments; also make a report at the annual meeting of the Society of the receipts and expenditures of the preceding year, and keep a record of the names of all donors and subscribers.

ARTICLE XI.

The Board of Managers shall meet once a month to attend to all matters of business relating to the Institution. Five Managers attending any meeting regularly convened, shall be competent to transact all business, except the adoption, repeal, or modification of any By-Law, or recommendation of any amendment of the Constitution, in which excepted cases there must be fifteen Managers present. The Board shall have power to declare vacant the office of any Manager, or any other officer of the Board, who shall have neglected to attend monthly meetings of the Board for six consecutive months, or shall have otherwise failed to perform the duties of a member, without sufficient cause reported to the Board. It also shall have power to fill all vacancies that may occur in the Board, to have effect until the next annual election, but this shall be done only upon notice at a previous meeting and reference to a Committee to report thereon. It also shall be the duty of the Board to employ a Matron and Teacher, and such subordinate assistants as may be necessary, and to establish By-Laws, Rules, and Regulations, from time to time, as they shall deem most conducive to the welfare of the Institution.

The Managers shall, in rotation, visit the Asylum weekly, to supervise the general household management, the health of the children, and the course of instruction, and make report thereon at every monthly meeting.

ARTICLE XII.

An Executive Committee shall be appointed, to consist of twelve members, including the First and Second Directresses, who shall be ex-officio members. Vacancies, by resignations or otherwise, shall be filled by the Board of Managers upon notice at a previous meeting.

It shall be the special duty of the Executive Committee to attend to the receiving of children into the Asylum, and binding out or dismissing them ; they shall make inquiry into the circumstances of children offered for admission, and shall also inquire as to their condition after having been bound out. They shall also have general supervision and control of the Asylum under such directions as the Board of Managers shall prescribe, and shall report at each monthly meeting of such Board. Three shall constitute a quorum when the First or Second Directress shall be present, otherwise five.

ARTICLE XIII.

The Board of Advisors shall meet on the call of the Board of Managers, or of the Executive Committee, and shall act upon any matters referred to them, or as to which advice shall be desired. Five shall constitute a quorum. Vacancies shall be filled by the Board of Managers upon notice at a previous meeting.

ARTICLE XIV.

At the Asylum the children shall be taught the principles of the Christian Religion, as held by the different Evangelical denominations, but no sectarian peculiarities shall ever be inculcated; moral example and habits of industry shall be encouraged, and, as far as practicable, established among them. As soon as their age and acquirements shall, in the opinion of the Board of Managers, render them capable of earning their living, they shall severally be bound out to some respectable person or family, for such object and upon such arrangements as the Board may approve, pursuant to the provisions of the Act in relation to the subject.

ARTICLE XV.

The Constitution may be altered or amended on the recommendation of the Board of Managers, as their experience and the future circumstances of the Institution may render necessary or expedient, at any annual meeting of the Society, or at any other meeting SPECIALLY called for the purpose; provided, in the latter case, that the alterations or amendment intended to be proposed shall be specified in the notice by which such meeting shall be convened.

VI. Persons entitled to vote at such meeting of the Society are such as are specified in Article II. of the Constitution, and no others—viz.: contributors to the funds of the Society during the preceding year, and Honorary and Life Members.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE MANAGERS.

One hundred and eighty-three children have found here a home—sixty-two have been admitted, and fifty-nine discharged to places provided for them, or to claiming friends. The average number remaining at any one time has been one hundred and twenty-five, which is the number at present in the Asylum.

Two-thirds of the children taken charge of are boys, as is usually the case, though boys over ten years are not received, and arriving at that age are otherwise provided for as rapidly as possible. An average of ten young children, above three years, is usually to be found in the nursery.

The two departments of the school have been respectively conducted by Misses M. E. and S. W. Horton, who command the respect and approval of this Society, and with whom the children are happy, and improving under their care and teaching.

The monthly reports from these teachers are satisfactory, and a careful School Committee are ever watchful of the progress and conduct of the schoolroom. The matron, Miss Rebecca Davis, is wholly faithful and efficient, and the order and economy of the House presents no need of amendment. Very little sickness has been experienced; but one case of serious illness, which resulted in recovery, and one death occurred from causes inherent in the constitution of the child. Dr. J. W. Hyde has been the attending physician of the year, and his care and service is as fully appreciated and commended as it is gratuitously bestowed. Mr. D. P. Horton continues to give the children generous instruction in singing, which is a source of real pleasure to those who hear their happy voices and spirited songs, as well as a delight to the children themselves. Mr. C. P. Pearson continues the superintendence of the Sunday School. Certainly no children are better or more wisely taught these sacred and important lessons, than are the children of this Society.

Besides the immediate interest of those most intimately connected with and bearing the responsibility of this Institution, it has received the attention of various religious societies, and the especial notice of the Board of Education. Mr. William Sprague (of the Board of Education) has paid frequent visits to the school, expressing great interest and pleasure in all he heard and saw. Once he came, accompanied by a large number of teachers from the Public Schools, and much pleasure and gratification was expressed by these visitors at the proficiency of the children in their studies, the unusual readiness of their recitations, and their well-trained singing. Mr. Sprague has shown his extreme interest, also, in sending various donations to the children, of fruit, gifts, &c., and by studying their pleasure in many grateful little surprises. Rev. Mr. Haskel, of the Cumberland Street Chapel, has contributed greatly to their happiness in various ways, and last summer invited them to join the Sunday School of his parish in an excursion down the Bay—which was, of course, keenly enjoyed.

Rev. Dr. Cuyler's parish sent a bountiful Christmas dinner, and the annual holiday festivals were duly made seasons of feasting and general enjoyment. The Christmas morning found a heavily loaded Christmas tree in the centre of the school-room, and gifts and good cheer were abundantly supplied by thoughtful friends of the helpless and dependent, made thus so happy, and their young lives sweetened, as their memories will be cheered in after life by these sunny recollections.

The festival held by this Society at the Academy of Music, in November last, was pleasurable and profitable—netting something over twelve hundred dollars. The children are carefully prepared for these occasions, and we have reason to believe are cordially welcomed, as wards of all benevolent hearts, and of a public interested in the good growth and training of its helpless orphaned children.

One of the members of the Board of Managers, Mrs. J. B. Craig, held at her private residence a charming and unique fair, in February last; the result of the labors of herself and friends being one thousand dollars. This handsome sum was gratefully received by this Society, and thanks to the same lady were also given for her gift of toys for all the children, and articles of use and beauty for the general family benefit.

To all clergymen who have visited the Institution during the past year, to all Societies, and Individuals who have helped with acts or words of kindness, to all donors of the sums requisite and needful for our maintenance as a charitable institution, to the gentlemen of the Advisory Board, and to our efficient legal adviser, A. H. Dana, Esq., we present our grateful recognition and acknowledgments, and request that their good will and their good deeds may go with us into the ensuing year; to those who have responded to the calls so urgent and so pressing for the new Asylum, we render especial thanks: the appeal cannot be too often repeated until it is wholly heeded. Probably no one unconnected with public Institutions can be aware of the evils, as well as discomforts and inconveniences arising from small and close school rooms, insufficient sleeping rooms, inadequate play room, and the general, physical, and moral unhealthiness of crowding and closeness. More room, more light, more air, these children need, and it is a pleasure and a satisfaction to state that some noble responses have met this urgent call for relief. Land has been purchased on Atlantic Avenue; plans for a new and commodious building have been submitted and approved, and a part of the necessary money subscribed. But only a part; and, as the only way this money can be raised is by private subscription, we earnestly intreat the attention and generosity of the many wealthy and benevolent men of Brooklyn to lend, for it is truly "lending," the means to complete the new structure. Fifty thousand dollars are still wanted, and then this city will have an Asylum answering to its immediate necessities, and which may give honest pride and pleasure to those who care so well for the helpless children of vicious or dead parents—those who bear the tender name of orphan children.

MRS. J. G. WELD,
Corresponding Secretary.

NOTE.—It will be seen that collections for the Building Fund during the year, together with what had been previously collected, and the investments thereof, and also monies received and deposited for benefit of indentured children, &c., have been included in the Treasurer's account, which therefore does not show the real current expenses of the Institution, without separating the Building Fund, &c., for which the data furnished in the account are not sufficient.
